Re: United States v. Travis Swain, S1 22 Cr. 485 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

The Government submits this unopposed letter respectfully requesting an adjournment of the status conference in the above-referenced matter, which is currently scheduled for October 23, 2024, at 11:00 a.m.

The parties have a good faith reason to believe that a plea agreement in this matter will be reached in the coming weeks and that the status conference likely will be converted into a change of plea hearing. However, additional time is necessary to ensure that the defendant has sufficient time to discuss the plea with his lawyer. The Government submits that this short adjournment will be the most efficient use of the Court's and the parties' time. The Government has spoken with both the Court's deputy and defense counsel, and proposes an adjournment to November 7, 2024, at 10:00 a.m.

If granted, the Government also moves to exclude time pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act. Such an exclusion is appropriate to allow the parties time to come to a pre-trial disposition. 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7). Defense counsel does not oppose the exclusion of time.

Very truly yours,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
